CELEBRATE
Skyline's 50th Birthday and SUPPORT Performing Arts!

For 50 years, students have been singing, dancing, acting, playing music, and making technical magic in the Selmer Berg Auditorium at Skyline High. The condition of the facility and funding for the programs have had their ups and downs, but the creative spirit of Titan performers has persevered through the decades.

And our Skyline alumni have taken the lessons they learned here and turned them into successful careers in business, education, arts, and sciences. They've earned advanced degrees and roles on Broadway, conducted symphonies, led organizations, and served their communities. They've told important stories through written word, film, and performance in all mediums. They've made the news and they've reported it.

On June 9, some of those accomplished and passionate Titan alumni are returning to Skyline, to perform in the Rawley T. Farnsworth Theater alongside their modern counterparts. They're doing it to remind us of the value of the training our Skyline programs provide, and to raise some money to keep those programs vibrant.

We're keeping tickets affordable -- a $40 donation -- though of course we hope many in our community can afford to give more. With district support gone, Skyline P.A. needs to find ways to pay for repairs and enhancements for the sound system, fix the stage curtains, and buy supplies like lighting gels and lamps, lumber, paint, and so forth. Program costs, including royalties for musicals and plays, music rental, and funding for guest artists, are also much harder to fund than they were a few years ago.

We hope you can help honor the tradition of Skyline Performing Arts, and we really hope to see you on June 9. For the latest information about the event, and other ways to donate, visit www.sykahn.com/Skylinegold/skylinegoldhome.html
